Prom New Orleans.

New York, June 4.—The Herald's New Orleans special says: An order was received yesterday from the President, through the Secretary of War, by Gen. Sheridan, directing that all further proceedings in the matter of the levee commissioners be suspended and that Gen. Sheridan report the reason for his order removing these commissioners, states as the reasons for abolishing the two former boards, that the Legislature last winter passed an set continuing the old levee board in office, so that four millions appropriated might be disbursed by a board of rebellious antecedents. After the adjournment, the Governor appointed a board of his own in violation of this act, and made the asknowledgment to Genezal Sheridan that his object was to disburse the money in the interest of his own party by securing for it the votes at the time of election. The old hoard, refused to turn over its papers to the new board, and appealed to Gen. Sheridan to sustain it, which he would not do, as the question would have then gone to the courts and have taken a order to discharge both boards was issued.

I say now that Governor Wells is a political trickster and a disunionist. I have seen him myself, when I first came to this command, turn out all the Union men who had supported the Government, and put in their stead rebel soldiers, some of whom had not doffed the grey uniform. I have seen him again, during the July riots of 1966, skulk away where I could not find him, to give him a guard, instead of coming out as a manly representative of the State, and joining those who were desirous of preserving peace. I have watched him singe, and his conduct has been as simutous as the mark left in the dust by the movement of the snake. I say again, that he is dishonest. Gen. Sheridan also immediately issued an order, for the reasons set forth above, removing Governor Wells and appointing Thomas J. Durant.

The newly appointed Governor is a native of Louisiana, an honest lawyer, and a staunch Union man. Sheridan also issued iorders removing the Street Commissioner, and appointing Wm. Baker in his place. The cause of the removal is neglect of duty, and the unclean condition of the city.

To-inorrow they will visit one of the United States forts in this vicinity, in company with Lieut. General Sherman. The weather is delightful. All are enjoying themselves immensely, being supplied with good rifles, they kept up a continual fire all day at Antelopes and other game that was found all along the track.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of this State commenced their annual Communication at Irving Hall to-day, About 1,000 voting members and as many visiting brethren were present. Grand Master Holmes delivered the annual address. He stated that much had been done for anffering brethren in the South, and there was stilliguach to be done by Masons. Great distress was yet prevailing. Dispensations for 53 new Lodges were issued during the year in this State. Negotiations were in progress for a Masonic Asylum in Schuyler county. Jotham Poet was appointed representative to the session of the Grand Lodges of the World at Paris, on June 18th.

From Raleigh, North Carolina.

RALKIOH June 4.—The ceremonies at the City Cemetery in connection with the dedicating of the Monument to the father of President Johnson commenced to-day at noon. The Monument is a single shaft of red lime stone; 10 feet high and ornamented with a cap which bears the following inscription:

"In memory of Jacob Johnson, an honored man, beloved and respected by all who knew him, born—died, January, 1812, from disease caused by a noble effort in saving the life of his friend."

The President and his party, accom-panied by Governor Worth, General Sickles and others, having reached the Cemetery in carriages, were conducted to a platform near the Monument. A very large number of spectators were present, and all appeared deeply interested in the preliminary religious avareless.

tors were present, and all appeared deeply interested in the preliminary religious exercises.

Hon. D. L. Swayne, L.L. D., President of the State University, delivered an address, in which he traced the history of the city of Raleigh and in this connection alluded to Jacob Johuson, who by a deed of noble daring saved from drowning, Henderson and Calivan at the ultimate loss of his own life, passing away evidently a martyr to humanity. The orator among other things alluded to the fact that three natives of the State of North Carolina, Jackson, Polk and Johnson, had passed from obscurity and poverty in North Carolina to comparative opnience in Tennessee, and then to the highest point of honor in the Union and the world.

Dr. Swayne concluded his very elaborate and eloquent address as follows: Of the history of the son of Jacob Johnson, who commenced life under comparatively unfavorable auspices, this is not the time to speak, The companion of his boyhood, Leonidas Polk, whose character I have attempted to portray, has passed the portals of the grave. The President of the United States is before you, his case in life thus far is one of the most remarkable of any age or nation. His country and the world have decided between the two parties which divided North Carolina and the South. He who schieved such results, so patriotic, was as brave, as disinterested and wiser than his have decided between the two parties which divided North Carolina and the South. He who schieved such results, so patriotic, was as brave, as disinterested and wiser than his compeers. The monuments of the sires are before yon—the crossed sword suspended above as a memento of the past, and a warning for the future. Blood of the noblest heroes on both sides of the conflict will soon form a union of hearts of the descendants of those who met in deadly strife on many well fought fields. The most patriotic hearts North and South, East and West, already beat in unison. The time has arrived when patriotism, not less than Christianity, requires the forgiveness of all that we cannot forget. Let the crossed swords of the monument, surrounded by the stars and stripes form an appropriate memorial association for the confederate and Union dead, and let the strife be forgotten above their graves, let there be patriotic and generous emulation to be first and foremost to promote harmony and good will, and restore union, that more perfect; "Union designed by the Constitution for our common country.

The ceremonies closed by a benediction, when two young clored girls came forward and tenderly laid bunches of the choicest flowers on the grave of Jacob Johnson.

The following paragraph was inadvertently omitted in telegraphing the speech of the President yesterday:

I have come to participate in the ceremonies of dedicating a monument to a man whom you respected, though of poor and humble condition. He was my father, and of him I am proud. He was an honest and faithful friend, a character I prize higher than all world by Gortune which could have been left me.

The President was accompanied by Secretary Seward, Postmaster General

The weather is designtful. All are enjoying themselves immensely, being supplied with good rifles, they kept up a continual fire all day at Autelopes and other game that was found all along the track.

The Fate of Maximilian.

New York, June 4.—Romero, the Mexican Minister at Washington, in a letter just republished, says that if Maximilian be permitted to return to Europe, he will be a continual menace against the peace of Maxico. He does not favor the execution of the unfortunate Prince, but believes his power to do Mexico further; mischlef should be utterly destroyed.

He further says that he intends to return of the Convention, the resolution was tabled, Mr. Greeley answered Mr. Brooks in normation was being prepared for the capture of the Convention, the resolution was tabled, Mr. Greeley answered Mr. Brooks in normation was saying the utterly destroyed. each canal, &c. It appearing that such information was being prepared for the Convention, the resolution was tabled, Mr. Greeley answered Mr. Brooks in relation to the charge of party organization of the Convention, saying the Democrats had opposed the Convention, and would oppose any Constitution it should make.

Mr. S. J. Tilden denied that the Democrats had any such purpose, unless Mr. Greeley seemed to intend that a Constitution was likely to be made which ought not to be ratified.

Montreal, June 4.—Parties from the Eastern border report that bands of Fenians are prowiling about and preparing for a demonstration before the middle of the month.
